

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Advancing Greater Boston's most promising women in business

Orientation

September 26, 2016

Participants will meet fellow members of the class, learn more details on what's ahead in the program, and hear tips on how to get the most out of the yearlong program from a senior female professional.

Leadership Development Program with Simmons School of Management

November 7-8, 2016

This one-and-a-half day program is designed to set the foundation for the rest of the year, introducing participants to the skills needed for successful leadership. Participants will have the opportunity to identify and examine their own leadership style, capabilities, and potential through assessments, discussions, and individual and group exercises.

Women's Network Breakfast & Workshop

December 9, 2016, 7:30-10:00am

The Chamber's Women's Network breakfasts are considered one of the region's most popular events for female professionals. Participants will be seated at special tables with members of the Women's Network Advisory Board, for the opportunity to deepen networks and hear from prominent female speakers. After the breakfast, the group will participate in a workshop, facilitated by a subject matter expert, to delve deeper into the speaker's presentation.

Pinnacle Awards Luncheon

January 27, 2017, 11:30-2:00pm

One of the premier gatherings of women in the region, these annual awards honor outstanding female leaders who have demonstrated excellence in all facets of their careers and personal lives. Participants will join more than 1,000 Chamber members to celebrate the 2016 Pinnacle honorees, and hear their inspiring stories on leadership and business.

Women's Network Breakfast & Workshop

March 2017

Participants once again will attend a Women's Network Breakfast, and take part in a facilitated workshop covering the leadership development topic in depth.

Negotiation Workshop with Simmons School of Management

April 28, 2017, 9am-12:30pm

Negotiation is a lot more than fighting for the salary you deserve. At this workshop, participants will learn how to express their own values and negotiate the conditions they need to advance within their organizations. They'll also learn the principles behind negotiation, and have the chance to act on them through practice and role play sessions with peers.

Leadership Forum

June 2017

Participants are invited to join other Chamber Leadership Initiative participants and alumni for a special breakfast program with a prominent speaker on the topic of leadership. Past speakers include Rosabeth Moss Kanter, author David McCullough, and Chief Justice Margaret Marshall.

Networking Reception

June 2017

After a year of developing leadership and networking skills, participants will join the Chamber's Women's Network Advisory Board for a celebratory networking reception. It's an excellent opportunity for participants to put their newfound networking talents into action, and further deepen strategic business connections.
