

Competitiveness Factor: Transportation

Improve our transportation systems and infrastructure, statewide

Principle

A safe, reliable, thoughtfully planned system that meets current and future demand will allow businesses in the region – and across the state – to grow.

Focus areas

- Improve public transit reliability and performance and strengthen management
- Develop a statewide long-term infrastructure plan
- Ensure networks – ground, rail, air - keep pace with economic growth
- Anticipate and adapt to emerging technologies